DAILY STAFF MEETING

Tuesday, 9 October 1951

25X1 Mr. [] reported that:

25X1 a. []

25X1 b. The number of [] reports being evaluated 25X1 by State had tripled in the past few months and these evaluations are much better than those previously received.

25X1 c. Mr. [] has been spending some time with FDD 25X1 and believes that the function of this Division should be reexamined. Mr. [] noted that 25X1 Mr. [] was presently conducting a survey [] and directed that any recommendations made 25X1 pertaining to FDD first be discussed and cleared with Mr. []

Colonel Hansen reported that:

25X1 a. George Carey had called and informed him that General Bor-Comorowski, leader of the Polish Underground during WW-II, was in this country under the auspices of the Polish-American Congress and would like to see Secretary Lovett for "a few minutes". After some discussion,

[] and in any event if it was decided that General Bor-Comorowski see Mr. Lovett it should be made clear that he was not being sponsored by CIA.

b. Congressman Mahon had indicated that his Committee might require a further briefing on our new building. However, there is no way of determining at this time when this briefing will take place.
A memorandum to this effect is being prepared for information of the DCI.

c. Drew Pearson is possibly preparing an article on super-grades in the Government, in which CIA will
